

Our Community Needs You!

An attractive feature of living in a community association is that it eliminates much of the responsibility of home ownership. But the price of that convenience is sometimes the creation of an atmosphere for apathy.

As owners in community associations we tend to allow that elite group known as "them" or "they" to operate the Association, attend related meetings and make important community decisions. We need to realize that "them and they" are always made up of "I, we, you, and us".

We all tend to be too busy to participate in association affairs and expect others to stay up-to-date on the affairs of our community association.

If our association is to be successful, individual owners must become active and participate in association affairs. We look forward to your participation!